Shopping for a bargain really paid off for Ira & Vicki Solowitz in May. The Solowitzes stopped by The Gallegos Corporation's annual Stone Yard sale in Gypsum, hoping to find a deal. With as much as 70 percent off slabs, stones and rocks, it wasn't hard to find product to complete their do-it-yourself project of completing their walkway.

Ira and Vicky got an even better deal than most, though. On Sunday, May 22 they received a call at their Gypsum home that they were the winners of a truckload of stone. A few days later, the Solowitzes re-visited the 10-acre Gypsum stone yard and selected a myriad of stone for their expanded summer project. Once he clears the space, Ira and his family will have four pallets of Sisterdale limestone, two pallets of Klondike gold heavy, one pallet of Arizona rose flagstone, and a pallet of assorted Colorado rose cuts and flagstone delivered so he can commence work on his patio.

"We were right in the middle of landscaping, before we went to the stone yard sale" said Vicky. "We just built our house and we ended up over budget. Now we are going to put in a lot of stone and a little grass!"
