

The Gallegos Gazette

The Newspaper for the Gallegos Community

June 2009

Gallegos

Building Solutions
for Distinctive Projects

Congratulations to Krista Aoki, daughter of Gemma in AP. She graduate from Eagle Valley High School in early May. Krista will be attending Humboldt University in Northern California this fall and plans on majoring in English and journalism with a minor in education.

Congratulations Krista and good luck at college!

The Gallegos Corporation's Mission

To finish each job completely with the highest quality and with safety "the first time."

Provide construction and construction management services of the highest professional standard.

Generate profit from these services while adding value to our customers & employees.

Continue to grow as the industry leader.

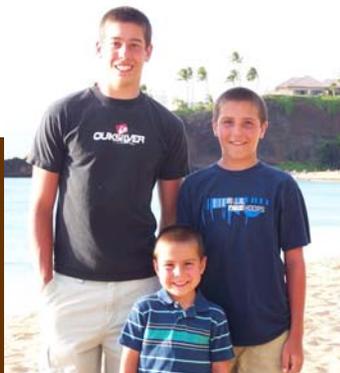

Josh Ponder, son of Lisa in HR, is graduating from Kindergarten at Brush Creek Elementary School in Eagle. Next up for the youngest Ponder? First grade!

Art Breda's (Aspen Masonry) youngest daughter, Erica, graduated from CSU in May. She graduate with a bachelor of science degree in Business Administration with an emphasis on Marketing. For now she plans to stay in Fort Collins and plan her future. Art and his wife Laurie are very proud of her and her accomplishment!

Kevin (Denver Plaster) and Darlene Hughey are proud to have three sons graduating this year!

Aaron graduates from Douglas County High School in Castle Rock. He graduates with honors, and school letters in Student Council and Football. Aaron has been awarded the Falcon Foundation Scholarship. He will be a Falcon Scholar at MMI, and is a US Air Force Academy Cadet Candidate for the Class of 2014. This summer Aaron will work as part of the Gallegos team until he leaves for school.

Sean graduates from middle school at Academy Charter School. This August, Sean will attend DCHS, where he plans to participate in the International Baccalaureate program, and play sports for the Huskies.

Cade graduates from the full-day Kindergarten program at Academy Charter School. Cade looks forward to a summer filled with baseball games and other summer fun before heading back to ACS for first grade!

Sam Evancho's (Mountain Plaster) is happy to announce his son Justin graduated from Red Canyon high school this spring. This fall he will be going to Colorado Mountain College part time while hoping to work for Gallegos part time. Congrats Justin!

Rodney and Becky Martinez (AP) celebrated their daughter's continuation from Gypsum Creek Middle School to Eagle Valley High where she will be a freshman in the fall. Stephanie was given an excellence in sports award just a couple of months ago. Becky and her husband are very proud of her, and she gave her very first speech at her continuation.

Ariel Rodriguez (Marble Granite Division) announced the graduation of his son, Ariel Junior, from Eagle Valley High School. Ariel is working in the Marble and Granite Division this summer and will be taking classes at Colorado Mountain College in the fall with the intention of doing web design. Awesome job, Ariel!

Almost 40 Gallegos employees gave up their Saturday morning to clean up I-70 in early May. Here are some photos of the hard working crew!

